

Membership site rules and information

1. Everything here is based on the knowledge, wisdom, information gathered from directly working with clients in 1 to 1 healing/coaching sessions and running in person workshops, conducting online coaching sessions and online readings and channelled information I have gathered in the last 12 years, since I have launched my business in holistic healing. This is my baby, and as such it is not perfect and it is very much a work in progress.
2. Please respect my work, time, money and effort I have put into gaining the knowledge and creating this opportunity to share them with you. Most of the material you find inside hasn't been published anywhere else, only within The Healing Chamber and the mailing list freebies for the waiting list. So please, do not share membership materials outside of this setting.
3. Sometimes I have added a link to a video I have created on my own YouTube channel to bring everything together for you. They are public, so please feel free to share those.
4. This is a self-paced learning opportunity for newbies and seasoned travellers alike to proceed on their spiritual path.
5. I am aware that many of you have been on the self- and spiritual-development journey for decades, like I was. I do respect your view of the world and the efforts you invested into your own journey.
6. Sometimes we can get too focused on certain aspects and skip over important information / steps / building blocks. So it is the perfect opportunity to fill the gaps, gain new information or just reframe things from a different perspective.
7. I have so much to share. I will add materials monthly to avoid overwhelm, keep things interesting and also to give you the chance to have a voice, so can I cater for your needs too.
8. Please note this isn't a personal coaching place, so you don't have unlimited access to me in this setting.
  - a. I will be livestreaming (video) once a month in our private Facebook Group, which will stay on the timeline, so whatever time zone you are in, you won't miss anything.
  - b. I will answer your questions in the Facebook group in an organised manner.
  - c. You are welcome to book personal readings and coaching sessions with me, outside of the membership setting.
9. In regards to technical problems, please note that I have built this website with the help of experts in different products / plugins/ add-ons, etc., as I have a background in static web design and graphic design. However the behind the technical scenes area is not where I strive. If something doesn't work, do not panic! And please be patient! We are here from many different time zones. Everything gets solved. Just reach out to me, please via email: eva.maria.hunt@gmail.com
10. Media Copyright - I am a static web designer, applied graphic designer and artist. I create my own pictures, videos, including graphics, and effects. If you do share something in compliance with the above material, please use credits accordingly: Eva Maria Hunt www.spiritual-wonders.com, www.holisticcolourart.com IG: @evamariahuntart
11. I am always on the lookout for collaborations. Please contact me, if you feel like we could be a good match. 😊

Thank you for your understanding, support and cooperation.
