1 General

How to use the cards & when you feel you are done flip them out and choose the cards that you are pulled towards or which ones you have one or more cards jumping out. Also for 3 cards if there are more popping out, that's not a problem.

Look at the number on the card. Use the basic Numerology wheel chart to interpret it. Read the guidance on the card and draw your intuition to make connections between the cards & relate them to the area you are inquired to look work, health, etc.

Choosing 3 cards
It is a great way to get their guidance. The card that you receive you can incorporate on during your day. You can also incorporate on the page for more messages.

Choosing 2 cards
If you are reading for someone else, ask your intention to clarify the person's current energies, what their possible issues are and what is the subject?

If you have more than 3 cards being pulled, we specific general 1 request to help you interpret them. Take the above questions to mind & go with your intuition.

The 3 specific card guidance
Separate them out. Spread at the bottom of the Moon symbols at the bottom of the cards.

Ask them
They answer the question: What my Higher Self wants in at this situation?

Energy 100 cards (All Yellow)
They answer the question: in what way I can improve myself a situation?

You can pick one card every from your chosen group of one card from each group to answer all of the above questions.

How to use the energy of the paintings?
My channelled paintings are the energy captured. There are wisdom messages in them. When you look at them, their energy is in interacting with your being and create positive shifts within you.

Some of my paintings like the 3 main paintings used are psychic art pieces. You can use some messages in them, which could be different, every time you look at them.

If you are seeking for guidance find the card in your hand. Read the message. Now hold on your breath and allow yourself to be taken into the picture. Let the message of a picture you situation.

It is interesting to know that if by looking at a painting, you are taken on the same journey, the artist went on when they were creating the artwork. Allow it.
